Bannockburn Colt, Asked to Give Away Too Much Weight to Good Horses and Also in Need of Several Races, Is Backed Heavily-"Right Money" on Yorkist.

The defeat of Dr. Gardner, the four-year-old Bannockburn colt for whom T. D. Sullivan and Frank J. Farrell paid $15,000 last year and who won the Excelsior Handloap in a gallop only to develop lameness, came as a big surprise to both his owners and their friends yesterday. From 4 to 1 Dr. Gardner was backed down to 9 to 5 at the last moment. He had shown some fast work in his trials and it was believed that he would run his rivals off their feet, but after the race Trainer Weir said that it was probable that the weight had proved too much for him. The colt packed 126 pounds and gave thirty-two pounds by the scale to Sir Lynnewood, a six-year-old; twenty to First Premium, three Tony Faust, thirteen to Blandy, seventeen to Cairngorm, twelve to King's Daughter, nine to Grimaldi, twenty-one to Coy Maid and thirty to Ben Ban. This task proved too great for the Doctor, who was perhaps short of work and who was meeting much better borses than he met in the spring.

rainer Weir said later in the day that he had become convinced that the colt needed a number of hard races before he could be placed on edge; that when the colt was owned by Barney Schreiber he had to be raced steadily before he was in tiptop condition, and for that reason his defeat did not mean that the son of Bannockburn had lost his quality for all time. Dr. Gardner pulled up sound after the race and cooled out nicely. He will be started again in a few days. His defeat won thousands of dollars for the books. as the public followed the big plunge made by owners with perfect confidence. Sir by the handicappers, who also took Tony Faust three ways and First Premium in a similar manner. Ben Ban was backed from 12 to 10, while there were many show wagers on Cairngorm and Grimaldi. Previous winners of the Sheepshead Bay Handloap were Don Alonzo, Domino. St. Maxim, Havoc, Semper Ego, Fly by Night, Greyfeld, Brigadier, Kamara, Blues, Graziallo. Woodsaw and

For some reason the wise men did not care rticularly for the chances of Ben Fleet in the Surf Stakes, for they let him recede from 18 to 10 to 8 to 5. They showed a preference for Sir Cleges, who was backed from 5 to 4, or Mr. Keene's Restigouche, who was steadily played at 4. When Mr. Whitney's Mombassa scored at long odds therefore the ring cleaned np, although there was a liberal play on the winner by those who remembered that three horses from the Whitney stable got the money Wedneday. The Surf Stakes was run for the first time in 1880, the winners being Spinaway, Marsh Redon, Jacobus, Thackeray, Wanda, Portland, Tremont, Magnetizer, Reporter, Torso, Sally McClelland, Merry Monarch, Hammi, Declare, Keenan, Hastings, Lithos, Varus, Autumn, Missionary, Water-color, Smart Set, Monte Carlo, Inflexible, Sparkling Star, Voorhees and Peter Pan.

The right money is down on Yorkist, said the smart fellows just before the first race. The expression "right money" means great deal nowadays, so that the tip on Yorkist was not passed up by those who heard of it in the paddock. As a result Yorkist was backed from 10 down to 6 and came home on the bit. A peculiar thing about the race nell's horses put their checks on Yorkist. Dugan rode Moyea into the ground and was everely criticised after the race. With Miller on Golden West, the filly looked to have a royal chance, as in previous races she had been ridden by inferior jockeys. Soat the last moment she was literally backed off the boards. Mintberia was also well played, but she had no chance after the start, as Brussel pulled her up to get out of a jam. There was a solid play on Ingham to show

The ring paid out big money on the success Agent in the steeplechase. Because of his game race behind Hylas the other day the public and the plungers gobbled up even money with avidity. He was like 1 to 10 shot, running one of the best races of his place at 4 to 5. J. W. Colt's Kernel was a paddock tip that was steadily taken at 16 to 5 only to run a distressingly bad race.

With Von Tromp and Yankee Girl scratched out of the fifth race, it was up to the smart ettors to decide between Saracinesca and Paumonok, both of whom opened at 7 They took Saracinesca and backed him down to even money at the close, while Pau monok receded to 2 to 1. Miss Crawford was also well played, her odds tumbling from 8 to 5, but she ran as if short. Ostrich, who ran a splendid race, went up in the betting from 10 to 12, but was well taken to show For some time past it was whispered that Besom, a colt by Ben Brush-Noonday, Mr. Keene had another Colin. So when Besom was carded as a starter in the race and the Newcastle Stable scratched The Squire to put Miller up on the Keene col the plungers made ready to unbelt for the In spite of the fact that there were eighteen starters, the bookmakers opened Besom at even money. But this extremely short price did not keep the crowd in general om getting aboard with a rush. Thousands of dollars were wagered on Besom as if it were all over. John W. Gates bet a bundle Mr. Keene, who was in the clubhouse, told his friends that he had wagered $500 on the colt and that he did not see how the son of Ben Brush could lose. Right up to the time m continued until the books were loaded to the skies with money. But there were two other starters in this big field that were recarded as dangerous. One was John E. Madden's Meelick and the other was Robert

The other day Madden started Meelick and the colt was a favorite at 13 to 5. ran in a heavy fog and was unplaced. Brussel rode him on that occasion, and just what was the cause of the colt's defeat the public will never know. In the paddock before could be no worse than third, but in the ring s number of hustlers with bunches of yellow bills in their hands rushed about from book to book betting $50 and $100 at a clip on Meelick to win. The colt was quoted at 12 to 1 some books at the outset, but when the speculation ceased it was impossible to get better than 4. Jane Swift meanwhile opened at 3 and receded half a point. There was also light betting on the Brownleigh k Stable's King Sol and Eddie Burke's Miramer, both backed from 20 to 15.

several races, and as Meelick ran a vastly proved race, somebody took a wagon oad of money from the books on the success of the Madden colt. Madden said after the race that he did not bet much and insisted that he never was in favor of plunging. But the fact that there was heavy betting on Meelick seemed to indicate that if Madden id not het he must have handed the tip to somebody with a bankroll who was not afraid o take a chance even with the widely touted Besom in the race.

Following the donation of the stallion stercolor to the Jockey Club's breeding bureau by H. B. Duryea came the announce-ment yesterday that J. E. Widener had given the stallion On Deck, by imp. Whistle Jacket, to the same industry. On Deck raced some Years ago in the colors of Bromley & Co., and probably be assigned to a breeder in Jefferson county.

learlings bred at the Runnymede, Dixiana ad Larchmont studs were sold before the taces yesterday. H. B. Duryea paid top price, $5,000, for a filly by Star Shoot-Kenncky Belle II. Other sales were a colt by Star Shoot - Bewitcher to P. Wimmer for $4,000; a colt by Star Shoot - Chapter to R. L. Thomas W Garth for $2,100; a colt by Sir Dixon-Creue to W. Garth for $2,800, and a filly by bir Dixon Merdon to J. E. Widener for $2,500. QUAKERS LOSE FIRST MATCH. Harrow Beats University of Pennsylvania Cricketers by 26 Runs.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.
HARROW ON THE HILL, England, June 27.-On a wicket that played treacherously from the recent beavy rain the University of Pennsylvania cricket team opened its tour here to-day, but was forced to submit to defeat at the hands of the local collegians, although playing a plucky uphill game. The margin was 2 runs, and at one-time a much heavier defeat seemed probable, as the opening batsmen gave a lot of trouble to the visiting field.

The top score of the day was made by one of the Americans in an inning of exceptional merit. D. Graham scored 45, and by his efforts the score of 147 was made possible. The captain, L. Lee, going in late, quickly ran up 34 before he was bowled. F. W. Baker played a steady inning for 25 and eligited applause by a steady inning for 25 and elicited applause by his splendid cutting. H. V. Hordern and R. Lee also got into double figures.

Falcon and Mumm opened operations for Harrow and a prolonged stand was made. Several bowling changes had to be made before a separation was effected, when the quick work of Winter behind the sticks got rid of Mumm for a quarter of a century. Falcon, however, continued the batting, and, aided by Colley, Bird and Lang, ran the score up to well past the century mark before he was bowled by Evans. Lang had in the meantime been batting very steadily, but could get no one to stay in with him and when the innings was completed was not out with $2 to his credit.

The best bowling for the visitors was done by H. V. Hordern, who had the good analysis of six wickets for 74 runs. A. N. Goodfellow captured two wickets, but they were taken at an expense of 49 runs. The local bowler, Bird, bowled splendidly throughout and his delivery puzzled the Americans. His record was five wickets for 85 runs. Anson and Earle each captured a couple of wickets.

SIR LYNNEWGOD, 12 TO 1, TAKES SHEEPSHEAD BAY HANDICAP.

H. P. Whitney's Mombassa, 12 to 1, Wins Surf Stakes-Meelick Trims James R. Keene's Besom-Yerkist, Agent and Saracinesca Score -Four Choices Lose.

Gardner started in the Sheepshead Bay Handicap at a mile yesterday over the Coney Island Jockey Club's track and was badly beaten. He was an added starter, and with top weight, 126 pounds, he was backed from 4 to 2 to 1. He had the rail position and broke well, but he was soon run off his feet by the early pacemakers. The winner turned up in Sir Lynnewood, 12 to 1, who carried a feather and was driven home a length in front of Tony Faust, 12 to 1, who heat First Premium, 6 to 1, a head. The latter made up many lengths in the last half mile after a poor sendoff. The mile was run in 1:40 3-5.

H. P. Whitney's colors were carried to victory in the Surf Stakes, for two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs, Futurity course, by Mombassa, a fine filly by Nasturtium-The Lioness, who was quoted at 12 to 1. James R. Keene's Restigouche, 4 to 1, made the pace, attended by G. J. Long's Sir Cleges, 4 to 1, to the last furlong pole, where both weakened and Mombassa closed with a rush on the extreme outside of the track, winning by half a length from Restigouche, with Sir Cleges two lengths back. A bad start killed the chances of E. R. Thomas's Ben Fleet, 8 to 5 favorite. The time was 1:06 4-5.

chase over the full course. Stone kept him under restraint while T. Hitchcock, Jr.'s, Buckman, 10 to 1, made the running for a mile and three-quarters. Then Agent breezed to the front and rolled bome twenty lengths in front of Rocket. 4 to 1, with Buckman fifteen lengths back. Kernel, 16 to 5, could not raise a gallep. The time was 5:15. Although he was practically left at the post. Yorkist, backed down to 7, ran all around post. Yorkist, backed down to 7, ran all around his field in the first race, for three-year-olds, six furlongs, and won in a gallop by two lengths in 1:14-5. Golden West, 4 to 1 was second, a length and a half in front of Ingham, 6 to 1, who beat Moyee, 8 to 5 favorite, a head. E. Dugan made entirely too much use of Moyes, as he ran his head off in the first half mile.

The Newcastle Stable's Saracinesca, 11 to 10 favorite, made all the running in the fifth race, for three-year-olds and upward, at a mile and a sixteenth on the grass, but Miller had to put him under a drive to beat J. T. Muir's Ostrich. 12 to 1, Radtke up, by a head, in 1:49. Miss Crawford 5 to 1, who had early speed, was third, three lengths away. H. P. Whitney's Paumonok, 2 to 1, did not care for the going.

P. Whitney's Paumonok, 2 to 1, did not care for the going.

With eighteen starters in the last race, madden two-year-olds, five anda half furlongs, Futurity course, James R. Keene's Besom, a colt by Ben Brush-Noonday, was a hot favorite at even money. He had a world of speed for half a mile and showed well in front at that point, but he was evidently short, for he began to stop, and John E. Madden's Meelick, 6 to 1, closing with a great rush, beat him in a drive by three lengths in 1:08 3-5. Eight lengths back Bob Tucker's Jane Swift, 7 to 2, took third money from Troublesome, a 40 to 1 shot, by a head. Four favorites were defeated. The perfect weather drew out a crowd of nearly 18,000 persons.

HEMPSTEAD, June 27 .- Overcoming a handi cap of fourteen goals by hard and aggressive play, the first team of the Meadow Brook Polo Club defeated the four of the second team in the semi-final for the Meadow Brook cups, the finals to be played on Saturday. The game was one of the best that have been seen here for some time, despite the large seen here for some time, despite the large score run up by the victors. The second team played more of a defensive game than otherwise and tried to keep their opponents strung along so that time would allow them the winner. At the end of the third period, however, the first team had tied the score. The last period, however, proved a surprise, as the second team kept the first down to two goals and put up the best game of the entire four periods. As the first team began to pile up the goals the excitement among the society people became great and shouts of encouragement were sent at the second team, who could not rally and lost by a score of 17 to 15 goals.

Mathewson to Form and the New Yorks

Whitewash the Quakers. Mathewson was in form yesterday and the New Yorks opened a series in Phila-delphia by whitewashing the home team. The Brooklyns fell before the revivined Bostons, and the Chicagos came a cropper in their game with the Pittsburgs. The Cincinnatis, another team which is spurting, beat the lagging Cardinals. The results: New York, 2; Philadelphia, 0. After a long absence from the races Dr.

PHILADELPHIA, June 27.—Probably the Philadelphias would not have won to-day's game from New York under any circum-stances, but there was no apparent reason why if they had made the most of their op-portunities, both at the bat and in the thefield why if they had made the most of their opportunities, both at the bat and in the the field they should not have tied it up. It was not so much their actual errors of commission that counted, for with the exception of a mild miscue on the part of Mike Doolin which cost nothing their fielding was faultless. It was the lack of prompt and proper thought on the part of Courtney in the first inning that gave the visitors a tally, and it was the lack of prompt direction that prevented them from scoring in the second inning. In the first inning Shannon welked and Browne singled to right, both met advancing on Devin's sacrifice. Seymour hit to Doolin, who made a bluff throw toward third, holding Shannon at that base, and then threw to first, retiring Shannon. Browne had started for third when the ball was hit and practically had Shannon run off the base.

All that Courtney had to do to retire the third hand was to throw the ball to Doolin at short, who would have had Browne and Shannon between second and home, or thrown it to Dooin, in which event the same players would have been caught between the plate and second, or Courtney could have run toward third himself, and the result would have been retired unless an error had been committed. But instead he threw to second to head off Browne, who had started to regain that base. As soon as the ball left Courtney's hands Shannon made a dive for the plate and gained it, just no sing out Knabe's throw.

New York sarned a run in the ninth on Dahlen's double, Corcorsn's sacrifice and Bowerman'e single to centre. The soore:

The Boston Nationals are not losing any games these days because of being overawed by adversaries. They are as aggressive as the best of them, and notwithstanding the new lease of life which is bestirring the Brooklyns of late, the Bostons waded into them yesterday full of pepper and hope Furthermore, they made good, An effective bunching of hits in the sixth inning settled Brooklyn's hash. Two Members of the Visiting Squad Removed for Kicking-Clevelands Beat Detroits and Gain on Chicagos, Who Are Beaten by St. Louis-Bestons Win.

The New York Americans returned from Boston yesterday and smashed the tail-enders. There were interesting doings out West. The Clevelands downed the Detroits, who have been getting it in the neck of late, and drew up on the Chicagos, whom St. Louis trounced. The Philadelphias were shut out by Jim Flipfiap McGuire's Bostons. The results:

L.), 15; WASHINGTON, 7. Three innings of seam ripping swatting put the New Yorks so far in the lead in their game with the Washingtons on the Heights yesterday that it was a foregone conclusion they would win. They did win, supplementing the thirteen tallies they bagged in the first three innings with home run journers by Chase and Conroy. The home team played some pretty careless ball after it had the Washingtons down and out, and as Washington's playing was rocky at most all stages, the game contained an abundance of freckled baseball. The hitting of the New Yorks and the income producing way in which they grouped the hits on Case Patten—a pitcher who has fooled them offtimes and muchly—was the game's redeeming phase.

Most of the New York ints were clean, but a few were the result of slow and twisted filed hard to judge, but that did not excuse the Washingtons for being slow and awk-ward in going after them. Chesbro showed up very well with men on bases, and there would have been fewer hits and fewer runs by the Washingtons but for foolish fielding for four frives.

An error in judgment by Laporte gave the Washingtons a run in the first inning. With Clymer out Ganley walked. Delehanty hit to Laporte, who threw to second, despite the fact that Ganley had started with the pitch. Neither Ganley nor Delehanty was retired. Ganley was inspired to try to steal third, but his inspiration was the wrong steer, for he was thrown out by Kleinow. Anderson walked and Jones's hit scored Del.

The whole New York corps went to bat in the first. Keeler and Elberfeld hit cleanly, Chase beat out a slow one to Altizer and Laporte elevated a fly back of second base. There was a passionate time before the oil was poured on the troubled waters caused by this fly.

The ball went out to short right, Ganley coming in for it and Hickman going out for it. The wind helped carry it out, and as Hick was spinning around like a top he failed to get hold of the ball. It was a scratch hit and when Hickman picked the ball in the second inning three more runs pressed the pind and would not fall for any such
